PLEASE NOTE: FAILURE TO COMPLETE ALL SECTIONS OF THIS APPLICATION MAY RESULT IN A REJECTION OF YOUR APPLICATION. THE INFORMATION PROVIDED WILL BE VERIFIED AS REQUIRED BY THE USA PATRIOT ACT.

The USA Patriot Act

To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal Law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify and record information that identifies each person who opens an account.

What this means to you: When you open an account, we will ask you for your name, date of birth and other information that will allow us to identify you. This information will be verified to ensure the identity of all persons opening a mutual fund account.

Notice for Non-U.S. Persons:

The Fund(s) generally do not accept investments from foreign investors (e.g. foreign financial institutions; non-U.S. persons). The Fund(s) has instructed its transfer agent accordingly. If the Fund(s) does accept such investors, the transfer agent is expected to conduct due diligence on such foreign investors as may be required under Section 312 of the USA Patriot Act and applicable Treasury or SEC rules, regulations and guidance (if any).

General Information

FACTS

WHAT DOES FIRST NATIONAL BANK OF OMAHA ("FNBO") DO WITH YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

WHY?

Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

WHAT?

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Account balances and payment history
- Credit history and credit scores

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

HOW?

All financial companies need to share customers' personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers' personal information; the reasons FNBO chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing.

Reasons we can share your personal information	Does FNBO share?	Can you limit this sharing?
For our everyday business purposes - Such as to process your transactions, maintain your account(s), respond to court orders and legal investigations, or report to credit bureaus	Yes	No
For our marketing purposes - To offer our products and services to you	Yes	No
For joint marketing with other financial companies	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes - Information about your transactions and experiences	Yes	No
For our affiliates' everyday business purposes - Information about your creditworthiness	No	We don't share
For nonaffiliates to market to you	No	We don't share

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

First National Bank of Omaha has divisions that operate under various brand names. For specific information, please (1) contact your local banker, (2) call our Customer Care Center, or (3) visit us online.

What we do

How does FNBO protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings.

How does FNBO collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Open an account or give us your income information
- Pay your bills or provide employment information
- Provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.
