

OBJECTIVE

Long-term capital appreciation.

STRATEGY

We focus on long-term trends and take advantage of opportunities created by normal economic and market volatility. We believe in owning quality companies temporarily priced below their intrinsic value. Utilizing a fundamental, research-driven process, we hold 60-70 companies based on individual merit. The strategy is diversified across economic sectors, holds minimal levels of cash and turnover is 25-35% annually.

FUND ADVISER

The Fund's Adviser is Tributary Capital Management, LLC ("Tributary"), a wholly-owned subsidiary of First National of Nebraska, Inc. Tributary is headquartered in Omaha, Nebraska. Tributary is a SEC registered investment adviser and provides investment advisory services to individuals, investment companies and other institutions. As of June 30, 2025, Tributary had $2.8 billion in firm assets.

WHAT ARE THE RISKS?

Stocks of small-capitalization companies are more volatile and carry more risk than other forms of equity (stock) investments. The net asset value per share of this Fund will generally fluctuate more than the stock market, as measured by Russell 2000® Index. Common stocks, and funds investing in common stocks, generally have provided greater return potential when compared with other types of investments.

² The Price-to-Earnings Ratio is a forward looking ratio which divides the current price of the fund by its estimated future earnings per share. The Price-to-Book Ratio is used to compare a stock's market value to its book value. Beta is a coefficient measuring a stock's relative volatility compared to the benchmark, the Russell 2000. Standard Deviation is applied to the annual rate of return of an investment, to measure the investment's volatility or "risk". The Sharpe Ratio is used to characterize how well the return of an asset compensates the investor for the risk taken.

The Morningstar Rating[™] for funds, or "star rating", is calculated for managed products (including mutual funds, variable annuity and variable life subaccounts, exchange-traded funds, closed-end funds, and separate accounts) with at least a three-year history. Exchange-traded funds and open-ended mutual funds are considered a single population for comparative purposes. It is calculated based on a Morningstar Risk-Adjusted Return measure that accounts for variation in a managed product's monthly excess performance, placing more emphasis on downward variations and rewarding consistent performance. The Morningstar Rating does not include any adjustment for sales loads. The top 10% of products in each product category receive 5 stars, the next 22.5% receive 4 stars, the next 35% receive 3 stars, the next 22.5% receive 2 stars, and the bottom 10% receive 1 star. The Overall Morningstar Rating for a managed product is derived from a weighted average of the performance figures associated with its three-, five-, and 10-year (if applicable) Morningstar Rating metrics. The weights are: 100% three-year rating for 36-59 months of total returns, 60% five-year rating/40% three-year rating for 60-119 months of total returns, and 50% 10-year rating/30% five-year rating/20% three-year rating for 120 or more months of total returns. While the 10-year overall star rating formula seems to give the most weight to the 10-year period, the most recent three-year period actually has the greatest impact because it is included in all three rating periods. For the period ended June 30, 2025, the Fund received 2, 4 and 4 stars out of 575, 554 and 398 Small Blend funds for the three-, five- and ten-year periods, respectively. The Morningstar Rating is for the Institutional share class only; other classes may have different performance characteristics.
